A Message from the President

In our 109th year of the Mt Gravatt Show much has changed in our community and at our show.

We have had to move with the times yet still maintain certain traditions.

Agricultural and community shows are part of the Australian fabric and provide an opportunity for families to come together and admire the skills and talents of our local community and our agricultural community.

Nowhere is this more evident in our sheep, cattle and equestrian exhibits and the popular animal nursery. This year we are giving children the virtual experience of milking cows and working on a farm. We are very excited to give families the Bluey Experience as part of our show entry.

In an era when phone and tablet devices have taken over so much lounge room entrainment, the aim of our show is give families the experience of live entertainment, up close encounters of wildlife and reptile displays, and showcase the talents of school children and our artistic communities.

This show would not be possible without the support and dedication of our show stewards, volunteers and our Government, corporate and individual sponsors.

We are also grateful for the continuing support of the Mt Gravatt Showgrounds Trust, and our local government representatives, Cllr Krista Adams, Corrine McMillan MP and Kara Cook MHR.

109 years is a remarkable lasting achievement for any community event. But it requires renewal and ongoing local involvement. So please consider joining the Mt Gravatt Show Society and contributing to our ongoing growth and development.

Enjoy our Annual Show and celebrate all that is good in our community.

ENVIRO ZONE

This zone highlights our local flora and handmade products with a collection of exhibits and informative activities.

Talk to members of the Mt Gravatt Garden Club and choose from a range of sub-tropical plants to purchase and take home.

Sit down and have a coffee and watch the Enviro Stage activities.

CHILL OUT ZONE

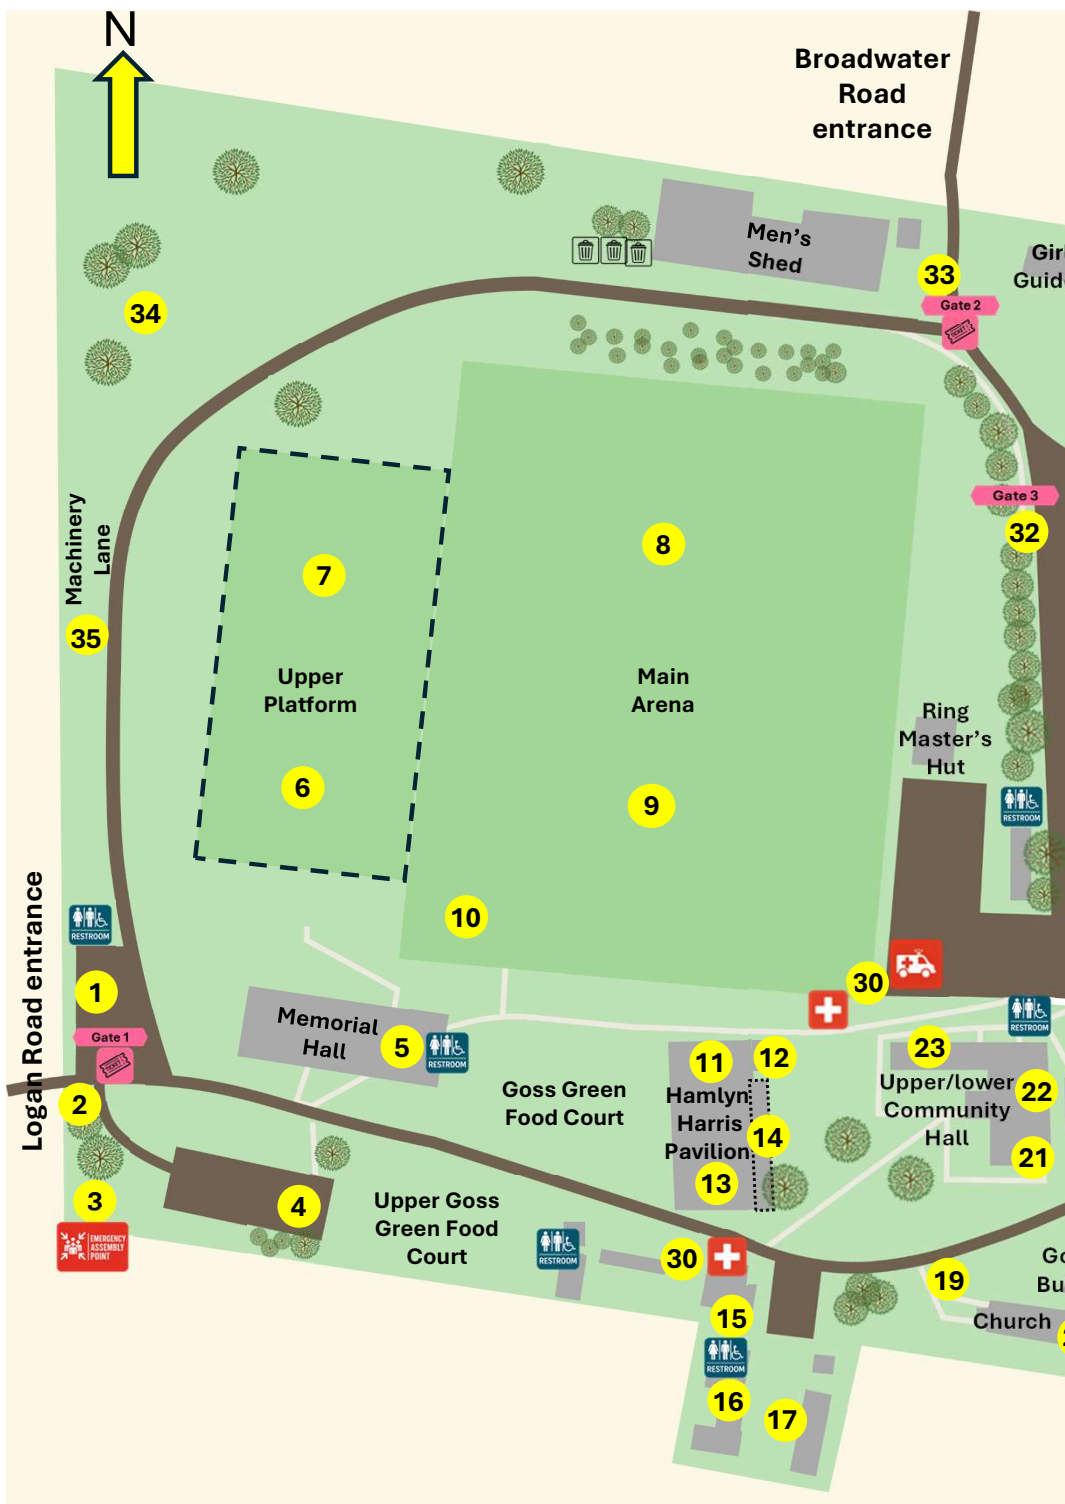

Located beside the Lego exhibition, the Chill Out Zone is an area with lower sensory stimulation where adults and kids can have a little quiet time and look through their showbags before heading off to their next activity or show.

MACHINERY LANE

Check out the latest in motor bikes and tractors, mowers and farm machinery.

COOKING DEMONSTRATIONS

Two great cooking personalities cooking for your delight. Ranger Nick will be showing his expertise in camp oven cooking in the area adjacent to the D'Aguilar and Paul Burt will be cooking up a storm with his outdoor cooking demonstrations.
